Class Level Description

Level 1: Beginning dance class that focuses on small tasks including 3 to 4 steps at the barre, ability to follow 1 to 2 step combinations and confidence to go across the floor by themselves. Must be potty trained.

Level 2: Building on the previous class expectations but increasing the amount of steps in a combination. Slightly stronger focus on technique including a focus on feet, arms and head.

Level 3: This class will begin with an abbreviated barre. All positions should be known and knowledge of steps is expected.

The class will begin to receive corrections and attempt to maintain correction. The center work will begin to become challenging both in ballet and tap.

Level 4: The students will be working on perfecting the steps that they know and adding to their repertoire. They are encouraged to push themselves past their comfort zone. They will be corrected verbally and hands on to help them understand body placement.

Level 5: This class will be a challenge for the student's body and mind. They will be asked to put slightly longer combinations together and remember them week to week. We will be fairly aggressive with strength training and corrections to help prevent injuries.

Level 6: This class will be expected to challenge themselves as well as take and retain corrections. They will be asked to practice at home. Cross training for this level is very important. They will learn new information each class. They will be expected to come to the following class with a better understanding of the information.

Class Attire: Women come to class with a dark leotard, pink tights, pink ballet shoes, tan tap shoes (level 1-5), black oxford tap (level 6), black jazz shoes, and hair in a bun.
